

Biography

Neal Thomas (bass/vocals)

Enjoyed playing music since 1959, which led to 27 years of traveling and performing with various artists and bands. Has played in rock/country formats with backing or fronting for such acts as Son Seals, James Cotton (Blues), Waylon Jennings, Hank Williams Jr., and others in the Country Music Business. Additionally, performed with Freddy Cannon, Sam the Sham, Jerry Lee Lewis, and most recently (as all the other members of the band) with Kenny Sweet and the Drifters.

Biography

Mike Meidle (sax/harmonica)

Originally from Wisconsin and a long time frequenter of Chicago's "Blues" scene where he sat in and fronted for Son Seals, James Cotton and other notables similar as band member Neal Thomas experienced but at different times as the two never met until recently. He is a "super welcome" and the latest addition to the band.

Biography

Michael Begala (guitar/vocals)

From the state of New Jersey and considered the official "dead head " of the band. One of the founding members of the band, with 38 years of experience playing guitar. Extensive background in sound experience and much-accomplished studio work as well.

Biography

Gavin Jackson (drums/other noises)

The youngest member of the group who began his music performance career start playing out with Neal and Mike as the band's drummer. Born and raised in Arizona he has numerous playing experiences throughout the Tucson community since he was old enough to sneak into bars.